

Interesting Facts

Some types of baby Australian spider bite off limbs off their mothers to feed on for several weeks.

In France they eat frogs, horses and snails.

A scorpion can go for a whole year with out food

A cockroach can survive being frozen in a block of ice for two days.

A female spider will lay eggs and sometimes they will carry them around.

A lamprey is an ell but has no jaws instead it has a sucker, like a mouth with rows of teeth it attaches it self to a fish and digs it self in and sucks out the fluid out of the fish, eventually killing it.

The African clawed toad lays about 10,000 eggs but many of the tadpoles are deformed. The parents eat the deformed ones.

A crocodile won't kill you straight away. I t will take you down under the water and spin you round. I t is called a death roll.

All cats are born with blue eyes.

